CORRESPONDENCE:

KENT COUNTY COUNCIL: Documentary film 'Caring for the County' now available again in an up-dated and shortened form. Noted.

CANTERBURY CITY COUNCIL: Programme for Public Participation Meetings 1982. Parish Council asked for any comments prior to a decision being made on the 1982 meetings. No comments.

KENT COUNTY COUNCIL: Rural Services Forum: Mid Kent College, Oakwood Park, Maidstone, 3rd April, 1982. No one available to attend.

KENT COUNTY COUNCIL: Mineral Subject Plan. Noted.

KENT COUNTY COUNCIL: Governing Bodies, County Primary Schools. Notification received that Thanington Without Parish Council would not now have a representative on the governing body of Wincheap County Primary School. As the Parish Council is a minor authority at letter had been written stating that the Parish Council wished to continue to have a representative on this School management committee. The Chairman, Councillor Mr. A. R. Palmer, had also telephoned the Divisional Education Officer at Canterbury to state the case.

After discussion, it was agreed that a further letter be written to the County Education Officer at Maidstone re-iterating that the Parish Council of Thanington Without still wished to have a representative on this body.

KENT ASSOCIATION OF PARISH COUNCILS:

County Circular No. 102. Noted.

Best Kept Village Competition. Noted.

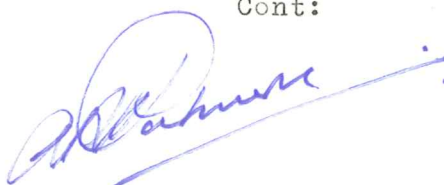

Village Halls Conference 1982. Noted. No one able to attend.

Housing in Rural Areas. Questionnaire studied. Will return.

Kent Waymark studied.

CANTERBURY CITY COUNCIL: Survey of childrens playgrounds in the villages. A reply to be sent that there are no playground in either the North or South Wards, but it is considered there is a need. Attention to be drawn to the Parish Council letter of 9th February 1980 in which a suggestion was made for a portion of the King George VI Playing field in Thanington Road to be set aside and fitted with swings, climbing frames, sand pit etc., Now there is a pelican crossing by the bridge at the By-pass there would be no problem regarding crossing the road.
